Description:

Vocal Percussion is the art of making drum sounds with your mouth. It made it's first appearance in popular music during the 1980's with the rise of hip-hop in the form of "Beat Boxing" and since then has become more and more popular being featured by artists such as Justin Timberlake and Jason Mraz, to name a few. During the course we will explore the basic techniques for making the drum sounds and creating drum grooves. Anyone can learn Vocal Percussion, Male or Female! But be warned, it is highly addictive and you will most likely find yourself "mouth drumming" while walking down the street, or at the dinner table!!
